

On Course Financial Planning

We, like other professionals who advise on personal financial matters are required by federal law to inform their clients of their policies regarding the privacy of client information.

In the course of providing our clients with certain advice, we may receive nonpublic personal financial information from our clients, their accountants and other representatives, such as financial statements, tax returns and other personal information. All nonpublic personal information that we receive regarding our clients or former clients is held in strict confidence in accordance with our professional obligations, and is not released to people outside the Firm, except with your consent or as required by law or to explain our actions to professional organizations that we are members of. We may share certain information with third parties who assist us in providing our services to you (such as administrative and client service functions or marketing services), as permitted by law, subject to the obligation of these third parties not to use or disclose such information for any other purpose.

We retain records relating to professional services that we provide so that we are better able to assist you with your professional needs and, in some cases to comply with professional guidelines. In order to guard your nonpublic personal information from unauthorized disclosure, we maintain physical, electronic and procedural safeguards.
